approach to biblical preaching, and I would appreciate if you would read it. I have been fascinated with preaching since I was in my early teens. As a boy I began a series of diaries that recorded the tedious events of a fairly humdrum life. Years later when cleaning out my father's apartment, I came across one of those diaries.

The exposition of the Scriptures and their application to the hearers are fundamental to the spiritual growth and development of God's people (2 Tim. 3:16; 4:2). It is the responsibility of the pastor (and others who have the gift of preaching and teaching) to instruct God's people in the "whole counsel of God" (Acts 20:27).

What is Church Ministry | Bible.org
The Bible would certainly not refute our needs for physical provision, a sense of safety, a sense of love and belonging, or a sense of worth and respect from others. However, the "growth need," as interpreted in secular psychology, is based on a denial of man's depravity and the false notion that mankind is basically good.
