Since its launch in 2004, Facebook has become one of the most popular social networking sites on the Internet. While many of its users are teenagers and young adults, it's also an excellent way for all family members to keep in touch in our busy and often geographically dispersed lives. With 36.5 million senior citizens in the United States alone, and 351,000 people becoming a "senior citizen" each year, seniors aged 65 to 74 make up 5.4 percent of internet users.
